Observing Diamond Jubilee

Large Attendance Expected at Service in Westminster Abbey

Preparations are now well advanced for the great service in Westminster Abbey, July 1, which will form the chief commemoration in London of Canada's Diamond Jubilee. The Dean of Westminster, Very Rev. Dr. Foxley Norris, has drawn up an order of service which follows as nearly as possible that which was used when the jubilee of Confederation was commemorated in the Abbey in 1917.

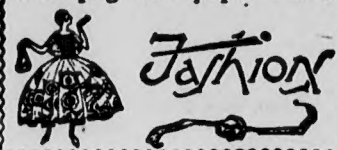

Owing to the King and Queen having a number of engagements to fill in Scotland so close to the date, it is feared it will be impossible for Their Majesties to attend the service. The Duke of Connaught already has intimated his intention to be present. Practically the whole of the British cabinet and a large number of representatives of embassies and legations have asked that seats be reserved for them.

New Use For Helium

May be Substituted for Nitrogen in Air of Diving Bells

When helium was first discovered it was considered a sort of scientific toy, and was obtainable only in extremely small quantities. Then it was produced in quantity sufficient to take the place of hydrogen in airships. Experiments are now in progress to substitute it for nitrogen in the air of diving bells, for the nitrogen under high pressure enters the tissues of the bodies of the divers, and when it escapes during the ascent causes severe lacerations. The discovery has an economic value for with helium it will be possible for divers to descend to the bottom of the Bay of Vigo and secure millions of gold from sunken Spanish galleons.

Will Always Bring Results

Success Assured if Anything Worth While is Advertised

Some time ago the people of Colorado Springs got the idea that there were great attractions in that place for tourists. Following up this bright idea they made spasmodic efforts for several seasons to attract visitors, but without much success. So they decided to appropriate $14,000 for advertising. This helped, and the next year they increased the sum to $60,000. They advertised chiefly in newspapers, all over the country. Over 88,000 autos visited Colorado Springs last year, carrying some 350,000 people. More than 90,000 more people came by train. These visitors spent about $13,000,000 in the Colorado Springs neighborhood. Not a bad return for a $60,000 investment! Where there is no publicity the enterprise perishes. If there is something really worth while advertising of the right sort will make a great success of it.

PETER DELIVERED FROM PRISON

Golden Text: "Many are the afflictions of the righteous; But Jehovah delivereth him out of them all."—Psalm 34:19.

Lesson: Acts 12:1-17.

Devotional Reading: Psalm 34:1-8.

Explanations and Comments

1. Peter Imprisoned, verses 1-4.—Peter, James and John were the three prominent men among the apostles, and Herod Agrippa I. began his persecution of the followers of Christ by having James beheaded. Finding that this act greatly pleased the Jews, he selected Peter as his next victim and had him imprisoned to await his execution after the close of the Passover. Executions were not carried out during the Passover, and Herod was nominally a Jew and most careful in all Jewish observances. Peter was guarded in prison by four quarters of soldiers, four sets of men, one set for each watch, two of whom were chained to Peter in his cell, and two were on guard outside, verse 6.

"When a man finds that a certain course of conduct is receiving popular applause he is led on to further excesses. A public speaker descends to a coarse and vulgar jest, and because it pleases the baser sort in the audience, and the speaker is awarded a round of applause, he is prone to descend to still further depths of degradation."—Dr. J. H. Jowett.

11. Peter's Deliverance, verses 5-11.—Peter was in prison, but prayer was made earnestly of the church unto God for him.

"I wish I could burn these two words, unto God, into every heart, so that whenever we pray, in public or in private, they would stand right before us; and that before we prayed a syllable of prayer we would be sure every time that we had really come into the presence of God and were actually talking to him."—R. A. Torrey.

At night, shortly before he would have been brought forth for trial and death, help came. "There is the enemy plotting, there are the friends praying; and the man himself around whom all the menace and the intercession are gathering has shut his eyes and quieted himself to slumber, because there, too, is he who neither slumbereth nor sleepeth. God is there in the palace, there in the house of prayer, there in the prison, keeping all the threads of the drama in his own hands; holding the tyrant's power in derision, hearing the prayer that ascends to his holy habitation, responding to the trust of his child, whom He is lulling to sleep. And now it is His time to work. The final act is ready to be launched on the stage. The moment of deliverance is appointed, and already its messenger and instrument is on the wind to loose him that is appointed unto death. How well may Peter sleep when God is watching over his bed and preparing his awakening!"—Robert Law.

The circumstances of Peter's escape are told very minutely—the coming of the angel (the word angel means messenger), the light in the cell that awakened Peter, the brief words to make haste, the falling off of the chains, the girding and putting on of sandals and outer cloak, the command to follow, the passing of the first and the second guard, the opening of the outer gates of the prison leading into the city, the going out and passing through one street, and then the being left alone.

Peter was dazed and thought his experience unreal until he "came to himself" and said, "The Lord hath sent His angel and delivered me out of the hand of Herod." One thing is certain, whoever delivers us from a great peril will always seem to us an angel. "There are no bolts and there are no bars which can withstand the purposes of God."

Wise mothers who know the virtue of Mother Graves' Worm Exterminator always have it at hand, because it proves its value.

Shipping Salmon Eggs

The Largest Consignment Ever Made in Canada

The largest single consignment of salmon eggs ever shipped in Canada was that made by officers of the Fish Culture Service of the Department of Marine and Fisheries to the upper waters of the Fraser River in British Columbia. Fifteen million sockeye eggs, in the "eyed" stage, were transferred in specially constructed crates from the Dominion Government's fish hatchery at Pemberton on the Fraser River below Hell's Gate Canyon to the following spawning grounds in the upper Fraser: Stuart Lake, Francois Lake and the Quesnel Lakes.

CHAPTER I.

It all began with the rustle of silks.

When Helmi's Aunt Lili came back to Finland for a visit, after six years of the crowded ways of life in America, the older women-folk of her family regarded her with mingled feelings of awe, envy and reproach. Her elder sister, Helmi's mother, said it was foolishness for a girl who had to earn her money hard, carrying trays, to put it all on her back and wear clothes that only queens should be wearing. At which Aunt Lili laughed, showing her gold teeth, and said it was a matter of principle with her to spend her money so fast that no one could steal it from her! Helmi was the one member of the family who gave the visitor full hearted and unmixed devotion. She loved the rich sound of her silken skirts, it was so luxuriant, so blent, it seemed to raise the whole family to a higher social level, and she marvelled how anyone, even her mother, would dare to find fault with this wonderful person who wore silk stockings, had fur on the inside of her coat, and pink ribbons in garments that did not show at all!

Aunt Lili had not spent all her money on her own clothes. To Helmi's mother she had brought a purse which closed with a crack. It had a head on one side, and two claws which could be flapped on the other side; gold satin lining; mysterious chambers inside; and better than all was the delicate inference it conveyed regarding women and money. To Helmi's father she brought a silk handkerchief with welled roses on both sides, a sort of magic handkerchief, for no matter how hard it was squeezed in one's hand it would spring out again without even a wrinkle. To Anna, Helmi's big sister, who had her hair in bangs, she brought a square bottle of powder the color of skin, and a round downy thing to put it on with. Aunt Lili used a black sock herself for this purpose, but she said powder-puffs were certainly style in America now.

Aunt Lili made many contrasts between America and Finland. "You work too hard here," she said, "and you never play. We work in America, but we have good times, too. This country is all right for men, but what is there for women but raising children and work? When a woman here is married ten years she is old, and her life is over. It is all just giving in, and giving up for women, until at last they give out. I wouldn't live here if you gave me the whole country. I couldn't stand it now after I have seen what a good time American women have!"

Her words, received in silence by the older women and scoffed at by Anna, who was going to be married in the Spring to Emil Saari, who lived near and had built a two-roomed house, found a sympathetic listener in Helmi, who was then thirteen. Her mother and Anna might be content with Finland, but Helmi's eyes had caught the vision of the far country.

The resolve to see this wonderful country for herself was definitely taken when she saw the beautiful picture Aunt Lili brought her. It was a colored picture, shiny as ice and rioting with light and color, called "Aunt's Flower Garden." It showed an old-fashioned garden bursting with roses and hollyhocks and Canterbury bells. Down the brick walk came two lovely ladies, one in a crimson velvet dress, the other one in fairy blue; a little golden-haired girl ahead of them clad in white, carried a green basket brimming with roses.

Helmi believed that title literally and wondered how her Aunt Lili could leave such an enchanted place even to come for a visit to the old home. Aunt Lili had saved soap wrappers to get the picture, and had left it honestly enough in the paste-board roll in which it came and where all concerned might see from whence it came. But to Helmi the name carried proof—"Aunt's Flower Garden." It was too thrilling a thought to lose, so she did not ask for confirmation.

Aunt Lili stayed for the Black Ice Skating, and then returned to her adopted country, but the picture she left with Helmi kept the fires of her imagination and desires burning.

Brighter still they burned after her mother died and the querulous, scolding grandmother came to direct the house until her son would find a step-mother for his family. Anna had married and entered upon the strenuous program of a baby a year.

With monotonous work and continuous scolding all around her the example of Anna, who was rapidly losing her red cheeks and her light heart, Helmi held to the vision Aunt Lili had given her of the Promised Land. The roses in the picture nodded approval, the Canterbury bells were ringing a welcome, the velvet clad ladies, still sauntering along the garden path, smiled into her eyes and whispered "Come and be one of us."

There are great moments in every life. When Aunt Lili sent the money and Helmi, now seventeen, held the letter in her hand, with its mysterious pale blue paper that the postmaster said was money, she was suddenly caught up into another world. Now all things were possible, for here were the wings with which she could fly away. She, too, would come back with silk skirts that creaked like a bag of cabbage, and purses and toys for Anna's children. Granny would be sorry then for the things she had said, but she would tell her that the past was gone. She was sorry for Granny, who would never, never see America.

Helmi made the journey to Saint Paul, Minnesota.

It was well that her young heart was fortified by so many pleasant thoughts upon the way, for bleak disappointment and sorrow were hers when she arrived. Aunt Lili, the dashing Aunt Lili, who seemed to defy sorrow and death just as she defied conventions and traditions, lay fighting a losing battle with a pitiless disease, in a cheerless little room in the hotel owned by her husband. Over the bar, in the noisiest room, lay the shadow of the great Aunt Lili, praying just one prayer between her spells of coughing, that she might live until her young niece came and then have breath enough to tell her what she must be told.

Letters take a long time to go to Finland, and although she had written as soon as she knew how serious her condition was, she feared her message might not arrive in time to save Helmi the journey. She must stay alive for Helmi's sake. Helmi had always been her favorite niece, Helmi with her golden hair, and eyes the color of the green brown moss in the bottom of the running puro at home. "Oh, just enough time to see Helmi and tell her things—please . . . please . . . God!"

And so the frightened Helmi, who had expected to be met by the Great Person who had brightened her childhood, came into the dark and dreary room, whose only vivid spot was the white face on the soiled pillow with its two burning eyes.

"Don't kiss me, Helmi. Ahn't it awful? It is a bad disease I have which goes from me. I thought it was just a cold like I often have, but it's worse than that. Anyway, I only wanted to see you and tell you. Don't stay with Mike. He says he will keep you. You do not owe him the money—it was mine. He wants you because you are young and pretty. The girls tell me he's acting bad already, and me not dead so soon. I have money enough to send you back, Helmi, that will be best. You know what is ahead of you at home. It might be worse. You will go back, won't you, Helmi?" Helmi fell on her knees beside the bed.

"But isn't it a good country, Aunt Lili, like you said? Can't I get along like you did?" she sobbed. "I can work, Aunt Lili, like you did."

"It's a good country, Helmi," said Aunt Lili when she could speak. "Just like I said, only men are so bad, and it's hard for a young girl alone, and I am so afraid for you. Men just want their own pleasure. Mike was good to me while I could sport around and dance, and while I did not say a cross word to him for what he did to men when they got drunk. He takes their money, Helmi; I can't stand that. I threatened him I'd go and tell, and then he struck me with a chair. He never comes to see me now, Helmi, and he made me take this room above the bar because when people pay for rooms they want to sleep. He says, 'You're awake, anyway, with your cough, so what's the odds?' Helmi, men are queer and all for self. The trouble started when my little Helmi was on the way. I had her named for you. Men do not like kids, they're too much trouble. He was mad and cross at me because I was not smart and was sometimes sick, and when little Helmi came she only lived a day, and he was glad. Then I hated him, Helmi—I hate him now, and an dwas sometimes sick, and when one is going to die, but I cannot help it, Helmi, I wanted to warn you not to get mixed up with men—they break your heart."

Had All of Them

A man wearing a worried look went into a shop which advertised a patent exterminator, and asked for a hundredweight.

"Certainly, sir," said the amazed assistant, "but that quantity would be sufficient to destroy all the slugs in the Queen's County."

"I know that," was the reply. "They are all in my garden."

Would Girdle the Globe

Colossal Number of Papers Printed Every Week on Bouverie Street, London

For many years the "News of the World" has been produced in Bouverie street—a comparatively short thoroughfare leading southwards from Fleet street to the Thames embankment.

Despite its size, Bouverie street produces more newspapers than any other street in the world. If the pages of the papers sent out of this small thoroughfare in a week were placed end to end they would girdle the globe.

The vast weekly issue of the "News of the World" would provide a quarter of this belt, for, if the pages were placed end to end, they would make a pathway from London, across the Atlantic, across the United States, and a few hundred miles out into the Pacific Ocean on the way to Japan.

About 25,000,000 newspapers are published in Bouverie street each week, making a breath-taking total of 1,250,000,000 copies per annum.

To get the 4,000,000 copies off the machines in time to distribute them over the length and breadth of the British Isles on Sunday morning and over the rest of the world as fast as great liners can carry them, the huge battery of printing presses must produce copies of the "News of the World" at the rate of 7,000 per minute, or 420,000 per hour.

Each issue requires 500 tons of white paper, 16,000 lbs. of black ink, and to tie up the parcels, 70 miles of string.

A new building in course of completion will be the most modern in existence.

Baby's Own Tablets are a mild but thorough laxative which regulate the stomach and bowels; banish constipation and indigestion; break up colds and simple fever and make feeding easy. Will Grow Tobacco at Coast

Possibilities of Growing Leaf in B.C. to be Tested

Possibilities of the British Columbia coast as the centre of a large tobacco growing industry will be tested out this year as a result of experiments sponsored by T. E. Coventry, member of the Provincial Legislature. Seed has been imported and is being grown on two half-acre experimental plots at Saanich. One will be irrigated and the other worked without irrigation to test out the best method of production.

Blind Girl is Braille Writer

Blindness has given a profession to Claudine Johnson, of Woodward, Oklahoma, who, although born without sight, has in her early twenties become a transcriber for the blind. Recently she was accepted as a transcriber for the National Library for the Blind at Washington, D.C. Various civic organizations have financed her work. Her mother reads the books to her while she punches out the Braille letters on heavy brown paper.

New Ocean Depth Found

A greater ocean depth than heretofore known has been discovered by the cruiser Emden, the German Admiralty announces. On the way from Celebes Island in the Dutch East Indies to Nagasaki, Japan, the Emden measured an ocean depth of 34,416 feet. What has up to now been thought the greatest depth is 32,644 feet, off the eastern coast of Japan.

Little Helps For This Week

I will not leave you comfortless; I will come to you.—John xiv, 18.

But He whose human feet have trod All paths of trial, He who knew No sympathy but that of God, Though linked with flesh that craved it too,

Years with us in our needs, our dreams; And mindful of our feeble frame, Holds to His heart our throbbing heads,

With love that hath no mortal name.

—Margaret J. Preston.

We can never know a sorrow into which the Son of man cannot enter; and we can never understand the depth and preciousness of His sympathy till we come to need it. I have had a very deep wound, the trial has been very severe; but how should I have known Christ as a brother without it?

Spare the children from suffering from worms by using Miller's Worm Powders, a most effective vermifuge with which to combat these insidious foes of the young and helpless. It is an excellent worm destroyer, and when its qualities become known in a household no other will be used. The medicine acts by itself, requiring no purgative to assist it, and so thoroughly that nothing more is desired.

TO WOMEN OF MIDDLE AGE

Mrs. Wilson's Experience a Guide to Women Passing through the Change of Life

Hamilton, Ontario.—"I have taken several bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I cannot speak too highly of it as I was at the Change of Life and was all run-down and had no appetite. I was very weak and sick, and the pains in my back were so bad I could hardly move. I got very sad at times and thought I had not a friend on earth. I did not care if I lived or died. I was very nervous, too, and did not go out very much. A friend advised me to try a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, so I did. I am a farmer's wife, and always worked hard until lately, and was in bed for two months. I began to feel like a new woman after the first bottle and I recommend it with great success, also Lydia E. Pinkham's Liver Pills. I am willing to answer letters from women asking about your medicines, as I cannot speak too highly of them."—Mrs. EMMA WILSON, 471 Wilson Street, Hamilton, Ontario.

FATAL ACCIDENT.

An accident which took place here on Thursday of last week was responsible for the death of one man and serious injury to another. It took place at the new elevator now under construction for the Wheat Pool. Harry Cressman and Walter Reiffenstein were engaged at the top of the elevator in removing a heavy iron pulley from one position to another, and in passing over some planking it gave way, the two men with the heavy wheel falling to the bottom of a bin, a distance of forty-five feet. When assistance had reached them both men were unconscious, and on being brought to the top, Cressman's condition was found to be serious. His skull was fractured and in addition his ribs and one leg were broken. Dr. Evans was on the scene immediately, and simultaneously Bert and Eluid Cressman also arrived.

The victims of the accident were then removed to the Didsbury hospital, where Cressman passed away within about four hours after his admission. Walter Reiffenstein is reported to be making very good progress towards recovery.

FUNERAL OF H. CRESSMAN.

Amid every sign of respect from town and country alike, the body of Harry Cressman was interred on Sunday in the Didsbury cemetery.

The deceased was in his forty-second year, having been born in Baden, Ontario, and owing to his long residence in the Didsbury district was well known by almost every resident. For some time he was associated with his two brothers, Bert and Eluid, local merchants and his cheerfulness and good nature whilst so engaged won him a host of friends. His temperament indeed together with the integrity of his character were often as favorably commented upon his example of a well-spent Christian life.

The funeral service was held in the Mennonite Church at three p.m., where an outside gathering of sympathisers swelled the total attendance, it is estimated, to five hundred people.

Rev. Hullman, pastor of the church, officiated, and delivered a very comforting and helpful address.

A quartette consisting of J. and H. Stuckley and Gordon and Russell Sherick also materially assisted in the service by their singing, that old favorite "Shall we meet beyond the river" being rendered by them very appropriately.

The pallbearers included—W. Liphardt, D. Tholman, J. Schantz, N. Swalm and M. Shantz.

Among the relatives at the funeral, in addition to the mother of the deceased, there were six brothers present, Bruce (Bearberry, Alta.), Millo (Stavely), Douglas (Delia), and Bert, Eluid and Morgan (Didsbury). Sisters of the deceased comprised Mrs. R. D. Curdy (Drumheller), and Mrs. A. Hunsperger and Miss Zillah Cressman (Didsbury). There were also present Mrs. Millo Cressman and R. D. Curdy.

Upon and surrounding the casket the large number of floral offerings mutely testified to the respect and esteem in which deceased was held, and as a further expression of this feeling it was noted that nearly ninety cars followed the remains to their last resting place.

The arrangements for the funeral were made by our local undertaker, W. S. Durrer.

Card of Thanks.

As it is impossible to thank each one personally, we desire to take this means of expressing our sincere and heartfelt gratitude to all our many friends for the kindness and assistance shown us in our recent bereavement. We would also like to express our very sincere thanks for the many beautiful flowers sent, and to assure one and all this token of friendship and sympathy is deeply appreciated both by myself and my family.

Mrs. Angeline Cressman and family.

As these matches are inter-club affairs under the Alberta Lawn Tennis Association for the district should interest is very keen.

The club is desirous for all members to get out and practise as often as they can. They are also anxious to have as many members as possible, so anyone wishing to join should hand in their names to the local secretary, Bennie Robinson.

On Tuesday night, June 7th, the Innisfail ballplayers came down and played the local team. Both teams played good ball throughout. The visiting team took the bat in the first inning. Stauffer was in good form and it was largely due to his pitching that the Innisfail team were unable to pile up a larger score. Johnson made a splendid running catch in the fifth inning, putting out two men. Charlie Cook stopped quite a few balls and was instrumental in putting out many players. The game ended with the score 8-6 in favor of Didsbury. Line-up—Catcher, Clement;

Law and Order, or Chaos?

The action of the British and Canadian Governments in breaking off diplomatic and trade relations with the Russian Soviet Government is the culmination of a long series of non-diplomatic actions on the part of the Soviet authorities, and openly expressed and active enmity to British interests in all parts of the world. Professing friendship and enjoying rights and privileges wherever the Union Jack flies, Soviet emissaries everywhere plotted and schemed to undermine British influence, destroy British interests, all with the avowed object of ultimately overthrowing the British form of government and breaking up the British Empire.

Wherever in any part of the world unrest was found to exist, wherever trouble loomed up, there the Soviet agents were busy carrying on their baneful propaganda, and always especially active if British interests were in any wise concerned. The British Government continued to exercise patience and forbearance until these ceased to be a virtue. In sooth, the Soviet regarded the policy of conciliation followed by Great Britain as a sign of weakness. They treated it with contempt while taking full advantage of it.

But it is not the British Empire alone that is involved in Soviet propaganda and activities. Every nation having a regard for the continuance of law, order and good government, and interested in the maintenance of sound economic principles in all international relationships and trade, must view with concern the attitude of the Russian Communist Government. In a word, all nations must recognize the fact that there are two major forces contending for supremacy in the world today so hopelessly antagonistic to each other that both cannot survive.

On the one hand, there is the communistic idea sponsored by the Soviet, a system which denies God, denies the moral code recognized in all civilized communities, ignores rights of property, flourishes on strife, discord and unrest, has no regard for obligations solemnly entered into by it, and ever seeks to promote its theories and activities through the medium of spies and openly lawless characters.

On the other hand there are those people who reverence God and religion, who uphold the moral code, who believe in the sanctity of marriage, recognize property rights, observance of law and respect for constituted authority and the honorable obligations of promises and treaties, who strive for peace and the orderly solution of social and economic problems, rather than resort to revolutionary methods, spy systems, treachery, threats, intimidation, even execution without trial.

One or the other of these codes for the government of mankind must prevail; there can be no compromise where principles of conduct are so absolutely opposed.

The nations of the world are coming to a realization of the situation and to an acceptance of the struggle involved. Unlike Great Britain and some other countries, the United States never recognized the Russian Soviet Government and has consistently refused to have any dealings with it. The whole English-speaking world now takes the same position. France, too, is alarmed, as is evidenced by the recent declarations made on behalf of the French Government. And U.S. Ambassador Herrick to France has declared his belief that "the people of every country have got to choose between order and anarchy, between honesty and thievery, between every day virtue and crime." "Either we believe in orderly society or we don't," he declared, "if we do, we ought to use all the power within us to defend and advance it."

Calling itself a Workers' Government, the Communists of Russia have sought to get control of organized labor throughout the world. In this they failed in Great Britain, in the United States, in Canada, where the hard common sense of the working men and the sanity and patriotism of their leaders have foiled these insidious attempts. "Reds" everywhere seek to create the impression that opposition to Bolshevism is opposition to organized labor, but nothing was further from the truth. Labor has everything to fear and lose from the spreading of the Russian doctrine and nothing to gain.

Eternal vigilance is the price of liberty, and as there can be no true liberty under the Bolsheviks, as even many of them have learned to their sorrow, the civilized nations must remain on guard lest they fall in the pit which has engulfed the people of Russia.

History Will Repeat Itself

Hudson Bay Railway is Only Another Aid to Canada's Progress

Those who talk of the Hudson Bay Railway in similar strain today should be reminded that only, comparatively, a few years ago Edmonton was regarded as too far north to become the centre of developed territory. But Canada, once all length, grows broader year by year. Marquis wheat pushes the limit of cultivation two hundred miles or so nearer the Arctic circle and long before settlement has exhausted the lands thus made available, means will be found to utilize those beyond them. The Morning Star believes that once the Hudson Bay railway is completed and begins operation, less than a decade will elapse before those who now condemn the enterprise as hopelessly fantastic will be glad to forget that they ever posed as prophets. —Vancouver Star.

Says Comet Caused War

The cause of the war was due to gaseous trails left in the earth's atmosphere by Halley's comet in 1910, declared a speaker to a meeting in Washington. The gas made humanity nervous, suspicious and irritable, he said, and if another war occurs in 1929, the Pons-Winneke comet of last June must be blamed.

Quickest Time Made in Ascent and Descent Will Decide Winner

Single-seater fighters, with motors supercharged to maintain power in thin air at great heights are to take part in an altitude race at the Royal Air Force display at the Hendon Aerodrome, N.W., on July 2.

Ascending with sealed height recorders, they will rush up to more than 25,000 feet or approximately five miles. Their pilots will wear electrically warmed suits and be provided with oxygen breathing appliances.

Having gained as rapidly as possible the height stipulated the pilots will come swooping back to earth again, the winner being the airman who makes the ascent and descent in the quickest time.

Honored Poor Inventor

Egyptian King Visited England to Pay Homage to Samuel Crompton

Because 150 years ago a poor boy named Samuel Crompton wanted to help his mother, a king came to England all the way from the glamorous Orient, with all his glittering entourage, to stand in silent homage at his simple gravestone.

What the boy did completely revolutionized the cotton spinning industry, made the British city of Bolton one of the busiest and richest towns in the world, and made possible a vast development in the cotton growing industry of Egypt.

That's why King Fuad came from Cairo especially to take part in the centenary celebration of Crompton's death.

Last January, when the International Cotton Congress was held in Cairo, the King was asked to come to the Crompton celebration at Bolton. He accepted.

As a boy, when Samuel Crompton helped his mother spin yarn at home for the industry was then carried on in the cottages, the difficulties he encountered suggested to him a cross between the Hargreaves and Arkwright contrivances.

The invention is generally known in the trade as a "mule." Its principal innovation was the introduction of a spindle carriage which took away the strain on the thread and enabled much finer yarn to be spun, thus making mule spin possible.

Sheep Protection Act

Municipalities in Saskatchewan Now Liable for Damage Done by Dogs

Saskatchewan's new act for the protection of sheep from dogs, went into effect May 1st. Under its provisions, any municipality in the province is liable for damages done to sheep by dogs, and all municipalities must appoint competent valuers to assess damages where sheep are destroyed or damaged by dogs. To provide funds to meet these losses, any municipality may impose a dog tax of $1.00 for first and $2.00 for the second male dog kept, and up to $5.00 for each female.

An old Norfolk shepherd died recently at Fellwell, England, at the age of 82. He was apprenticed as a shepherd at an early age and continued in that employment throughout the rest of his life. FOUND A HEALTH BUILDING TONIC

A Nova Scotia Lady Was in an Anaemic Condition

Men and women who do not sleep well and are not refreshed and strengthened by a night's rest, are generally suffering from thin, watery blood. The nerves fail to get the nourishment they demand and headaches and a worn-out feeling is the result. Building up the blood is the one sure step to renewed health and strength, and for this purpose nothing else can equal Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. From first dose to last they enrich and purify the blood, and in this way promote better appetite, better rest at night, and renewed strength.

Mrs. Mary E. Uhlman, Williams-town, N.S., writes:—"I have received so much benefit from Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, that I would feel myself ungrateful if I did not let you know."

I was in a very poor state of health and reached the stage where I had to remain in bed. A doctor was called in and he told me I had no organic trouble, but was simply run down from overwork. I had been left with a family to support, which I did by dressmaking. The doctor said my blood had almost turned to water, and advised a rest cure. I did not see how it was possible for me to take a very long rest, so I decided to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Soon I found my strength returning and before very long I was able to go about my duties as usual again. This was a few years ago, and my health remained good until about a year ago, when I broke out with humor of the blood. Again I consulted the doctor, who said my blood had become so thin that it had really poisoned itself. I told him I had bought several boxes of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and he told me to go on taking them as he thought they were just what I needed. I took eight boxes and again was in good health. I can therefore recommend these pills to all in a weak or run-down condition."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are sold by all druggists or will be sent by mail, post paid, on receipt of price, 50 cents a box. Try them today.

Learned the Reason

Forbes Magazine tells of a colored agent who was summoned before the insurance commissioner, "Don't you know," said the commissioner, "that you can't sell life insurance without a State license?"

"Boss," said the man, "you suit said a mouthful. I knowed I couldn't sell it, but I didn't know the reason."

NEW U. S. ENVOY IS PRESENTED TO LORD WILLINGDON

Ottawa. — Hon. William Phillips, first United States minister to Canada, formally presented his letter of credence to His Excellency the Governor-General, Mr. Phillips was presented to His Excellency by Dr. O. D. Skelton, under secretary of external affairs for Canada.

"My government seeks," said Mr. Phillips, "in the establishment of my mission, to strengthen the cordial sentiments which have ever animated the people of Canada and the United States, confident that their association in everything that touches peaceful and orderly progress will bring new benefits to both." And these cordial words found echo both in the letter of credence from President Coolidge and in the reply of Viscount Willingdon, Governor-General. President Coolidge observed that Mr. Phillips is well informed of the desire of the United States government to cultivate to the fullest extent the friendship which has so long existed between Your Majesty's Dominion of Canada and this country.

"I am very sensible," said Viscount Willingdon in reply, "of the remarks to which you have given expression with regard to the cordial and friendly relations which have long existed between our two countries, and can assure you that both I and my government will give you every assistance in promoting our mutual progress and prosperity. We, in Canada, recognize the many advantages we have obtained from the fact that we live in close association with a great and powerful neighbor and trust that these relations may be confirmed and strengthened during your term of service amongst us."

International Bridge Opened For Traffic

Formal Dedication of Peace Span Takes Place in September

Buffalo, N.Y.—The new international peace bridge spanning the Niagara River between Buffalo and Fort Erie, Ont., was opened to traffic June 1 with simple ceremonies of the two countries which it connects.

Promptly at the time set for the opening, automobiles containing officials of the bridge company and Buffalo public officials led by Mayor Frank K. Schwab, left the United States end of the structure for the Canadian side. There, they circled around the peace bridge plaza, picked up Canadian officials headed by Reeve Louis Douglas, of Fort Erie, and returned to the American side.

Display and ceremony was lacking. That will come probably in September when at the formal dedication of the $4,500,000 span, high officials of the Canadian and United States governments will take part. President Coolidge has been invited and sponsors of the ceremony expect the attendance of the Prince of Wales and Premier Baldwin of Great Britain as well as Canadian executives.

Plan Big Elevator

Vancouver, B.C.—The Province says: "Construction of a 1,500,000 bushel grain elevator to cost approximately $2,000,000 will be commenced here shortly by the Alberta Wheat pool, according to announcement from Calgary."

For a Better Understanding

Appreciation of Needs of All Portions of Canada Required Says Beatty

Vancouver.—"In this year which we celebrate the Diamond Jubilee of the Confederation of Canada, our greatest contribution to the memory of those courageous Fathers of Confederation should be a greater understanding of the needs of those portions of the country in which we ourselves do not live," said E. W. Beatty, president and chairman of the Canadian Pacific Railway in an address given at a combined luncheon of the Canadian Club and the Vancouver Board of Trade.

"National characteristics are backed by greater resources heretofore undeveloped," said Mr. Beatty. "The first is the tremendous areas of agricultural lands producing the finest wheat in the world, and not less important vast areas of equally good arable land as yet untouched by the plow."

"It is estimated, in fact," continued Mr. Beatty, "that only from one twelfth to one eighth of the country's agricultural lands have as yet been cultivated. The second is its also unlimited water powers. I doubt if there is any other country in the world so plentifully supplied with power development as is Canada, and everyone realizes what that means as a factor in industrial expansion."

"The third is its forest wealth, which already has enabled it to conduct lumbering operations, the annual output of which exceeds $145,000,000 and to produce pulp and paper to the value of $200,000,000."

"Then there are its mineral possibilities, the potentialities of which are very great enabling it to produce gold, silver, nickel, zinc, lead and copper to an aggregate value in 1925 of $113,000,000."

U.S. Pilot Lost Bearings

Went 145 Miles off Route Between Montreal and Ottawa

Ottawa.—After being in air for five and one quarter hours, having lost his bearings and gone more than one hundred miles off his route, Captain R. G. Hoyt, piloting a United States army goodwill plane, landed at Ottawa. In leaving Montreal the aviator mistook the St. Lawrence River for the Ottawa River, he said, and after following the former stream for some hours, came to earth to regain his bearings and discovered he was 145 miles off his route.

The final landing in the capital almost proved disastrous. The field adjoining the Dominion Experimental Farm on which the plane came to earth was rough of surface and in gliding down the plane suffered a smashed wing and badly crumpled landing gear. Both Captain Hoyt and Sergeant B. D. Boozer, who accompanied him, escaped injury, however.

For earlot grain all grain not loaded out by July 15 will be carried over into the 1927-28 pool.

WAR GESTURE IN RUSSIA FOLLOWS RAID IN LONDON

Moscow.—An appeal has been addressed by the central committee of all the Russian communist party organizations, declaring that the rupture of Anglo-Soviet relations is unquestionably a step towards war against the Union.

The rupture is further described as the culminating point in a long game of British diplomacy, inspiring and organizing an imperialist onslaught on the Soviet Union. It is emphasized that the Soviet Union has pursued and is pursuing a policy of peace, and that everything possible has been and is being done for the preservation of peace, despite provocations.

The appeal says that war may be forced on Russia, in spite of its efforts for peace, and calls on all members of the party and all toilers to pay the closest attention to questions consolidating the economic strength and defence of the country.

Getting Branch Line Work Under Way

C.N.R. Anxious to Have Lines Completed Says Vice-President

Winnipeg.—"We are forging ahead with the branch lines," said S. J. Hungerford, vice-president in charge of operating of the Canadian National Railways, who arrived in the city from Montreal.

"As quickly as the contracts can be let, the work is getting under way," he added.

The system was anxious to get the lines completed and serving the public as soon as possible, he said, and a good deal of the work would be done this year. Mr. Hungerford was not prepared to say anything regarding new development, and knew nothing of any projected lines into Manitoba's central mining areas.

The vice-president was here on one of his periodical trips for conference with western region officials.

A Giant Photograph

New York.—A giant photograph of 22,000 square miles of Newfoundland is to be taken from the air and pieced together in the most thorough search yet to be undertaken for the missing French aviators, Nungesser and Coll. Appeals to United Canada

Should Keep Soviet Agents Out Says Sir Henry Thornton

St. Thomas, Ont.—Sir Henry Thornton, president and chairman of the Canadian National Railways, in the course of an address before the business men of this city, suggested that agents of Soviet Russia should steer clear of this country and permit Canadians to build a united, contented and prosperous dominion.

"This nation is founded upon the fine traditions of the Anglo-Saxon race; its jurisprudence embraces the fine principles of the English law and fair play," Sir Henry said. "We are essentially a law-abiding people, and we want no element to come in and disturb that condition."

"Whatever others may think about other forms of government and about visionary schemes of society, it may conservatively be described as distinct and unique and if any communist wants to come here and rouse the slaves, we should inform them that we can do the waking of these slaves ourselves."

Reach Amicable Settlement

Britain Waives Claims for Detention of Shipping During War

Washington.—Claims of the British Government and its nationals against the United States for seizure and detention of shipping during the world war have been waived by Great Britain, it was disclosed with publication of notes ratifying an agreement reached two weeks ago.

In return the United States Government agrees to employ the money thus saved to pay claims of Americans against the British which might fall of settlement in the British courts but which the United States Government regards as meritorious.

British claims which the United States Government has recognized as just are understood to total approximately $1,000,000, with others for which liability has not been conceded reaching a higher figure.

Manxmen to Celebrate

Possibilities of Increased Immigration to Canada Will Be Discussed

New York.—Five hundred Manxmen residing in Canada and the United States sailed from Montreal June 3, for a four weeks home-going celebration on their native soil, the Isle of Man, famous for its tailless cats and ancient for its self-government. Possibilities of increasing Manx immigration to Canada and the United States will be among subjects to be brought up at the celebration on the island.

Many Settlers Reached Winnipeg

Winnipeg.—A youthful party of 45 Scotch boys from the hills and glens of Scotland and from the industrial centre of Glasgow, have arrived in Winnipeg seeking jobs and farm locations on the prairies. With this party were four British and two Danish families who will settle on the prairies as soon as they can find a satisfactory place. Other arrivals were Poles, Russians, Hungarians, Czech-Slovaks, Rumanians and Swedes.

FOREIGN POWERS SENDING TROOPS TOWARDS PEKING

Peking.—The movement of the Nationalists on Peking, ancient capital of China, and the strategic retreat of Chang Tso-Lin, Manchurian war lord, under whose regime foreigners in the Peking district have been protected, has caused an ominous rumbling in the Chinese imbroglio. The powers are expected to concentrate allied forces for protective purposes in the threatened area.

Japan has landed 2,000 troops at Tsin-tao, ready to advance to Tsin-tu, capital of Shantung province, along the Shantung Railway, which Japan surrendered to China at the Washington conference. This advance, it is stated, will be made only if Japanese interests require protection. There are also indications from Tokyo that 2,000 additional troops will be despatched to Peking and Tientsin if needed.

Great Britain is ready to despatch at least a battalion to Tientsin from Shanghai, and it is understood the border regiment has been selected.

The United States is moving between 4,000 and 5,000 marines from Shanghai and the Philippines to Tientsin to meet any emergency that may arise.

Practically all missionaries in the northern inland stations were evacuated to the coast early in April, and a large proportion of the women and children in Peking left either for the coast or for Japan at the same time.

The Japanese expedition is adversely criticized by all factions of Chinese here, who assert it has even less justification than the British expedition to Shanghai.

Canadian Minister Welcomed In Kentucky

Addressed English-Speaking Union on "Exploits of Neighborliness"

Louisville, Ky.—The Union Jack and the Stars and Stripes politely fraternized over the heads of 150 members of the Kentucky branch of the English-speaking Union while Hon. Vincent Massey, Canadian minister to the United States, spoke on "Exploits of Neighborliness."

"I am glad English-speaking folk are learning that we may be good patriots and good neighbors at the same time," he said. He praised the English-speaking Union for its work in promoting comradeship and good feeling between peoples and paid a tribute to the Kentucky branch.

Judge R. W. Bingham, honorary president of the Kentucky organization, presided at the luncheon. He characterized England as the "most important entity in the world."

"By England," he said, "I do not mean a small island off the coast of Europe. I refer to the state of mind of the English-speaking people throughout the world who have wrought for themselves a condition of religious, political and social freedom without losing that supporting attitude toward life which is the characteristic of the race."

Increase in Chemical Sales

Ottawa.—Canada's chemical industry recorded an increase of $7,500,000 in sales during 1926, as compared with the previous year, according to the Dominion Bureau of Statistics. Production by 533 plants was valued at $120,369,518, as against $113,000,000 for the previous year.

Approves Concession to Canada

Paris.—The Senate has adopted the bill, which has already passed the Chamber of Deputies, which approves the concession to the Canadian Government of ground in Vimy Ridge for the erection of a monument to Canadian soldiers killed in the war.

To Develop Mining Area

Winnipeg.—Two million dollars will be spent in the Central Manitoba mineral area on development work this year. Improved navigation and highways into this district are included in the activities of the Mining Bureau of the Winnipeg Board of Trade.

More than 9,000,000 passengers are daily lifted or lowered by lifts in buildings in New York City, according to Popular Mechanics.

Rugby.

Rugby W.I. met at the home of Mrs. Whiteside on Thursday last. Owing to weather and road conditions, Mrs. Bury of Olds, unable to be with us, sent a paper dealing with "Life Insurance" which was read by Mrs. Hosegood, our Convenor on Legislation. However, we were much pleased to have with us our Constituency Convenor, Mrs. Leeson, who gave us a short talk. Because of the shortness of the hour, the report of convention was postponed for the special meeting in July.

Plans are being made for the celebration of Canada's Jubilee at Rugby Schoolhouse on July 1. The nearby school districts are co-operating and a good program is being prepared.
